"I said Glenda Ferguson would move mountains to have a good nationals," said NFL President Billy Tate, "and you don't see a mountain here, do you!"

Oklahoma! Where debates came sweeping down the plain!

The Lincoln Financial Group NFL National Speech Tournament broke records! Two hundred Henry J. Kaiser Policy Debate Teams, 231 Lincoln Financial Group L/D debaters, 201 Patrick Henry Memorial Foundation Auxiliary orators, 208 Lanny Naegelin Memorial Dramatic Interpreters, 201 Sandra Silvers Memorial Humorous Interpreters, 192 Schwan's Duo Interpretation Teams, 189 Schwan's Foreign Extempore speakers and 203 Public Employees Roundtable/American Society for Public Administration U. S. Extempore Speakers competed in main tournament events. The John C. Stennis National Student Congress welcomed 241 Representatives and 192 Senators and seven teams competed in the Barbara Jordan Youth Debates on Health national round robin.

Supplemental and Consolation events set records: 263 participants in Prose; 223 in Poetry; 147 in Expository; 202 in Public Employees Roundtable Commentary; 289 in Impromptu and 105 in Storytelling!

"Oh what a beautiful tournament..... scholarships coming my way."

NFL National Sponsor Lincoln Financial Group again showed their support for the young speakers of America by sponsoring the National Tournament and awarding $77,000 in college scholarships. And each participant was given a free 20-minute phone card to "call home."

The tournament pinnacle was the Lincoln Financial Group Circle of Champions, where LFG Vice President Gloster Current presented each main event winning student a $5,000 college scholarship!

Exciting drawings by LFG Vice President Kelly Clevenger chose five

"Participants of the Year". The names of every student qualified for the tournament - except the 12 Circle of Champion Winners - were placed in a "treasure chest." VP Clevenger drew names at random to select five students to represent the 93,000 students who participated in NFL during the school year. Lincoln Financial Group gave each a $1,000 scholarship!

"We know we belong to the land and the parties we go to are grand!"

This year new NFL sponsor Schwan's provided two world class events. The Freschetta Pizza Blast and Pool Party held Wednesday evening featured luscious rising crust Freschetta Pizza, cold beverages, swimming, field games (a mechanical bull, a climbing wall and a bungee run) and the biggest show, the "Schwan Dive."

The "Dive", held at the OU diving pool was judged by Schwan executives, M. Lenny Pippin, Dave Paskash and John Drown, who rewarded divers who exhibited skills in belly flopping, diving, and splashing. Hall of Fame Coach Ralph Bender dove as did a Calvert Hall (MD) student wearing his clothes and a tie!

Friday featured the Schwan's Premium Ice Cream Social -- two hours of great tasting ice cream specialties, ice cream sundaes with special toppings, fresh cookies - and a free vinyl CD case for each student!

With only eight months to prepare, co-chairs Glenda Ferguson and Susan Crabtree and the Oklahoma committee especially Jo Russell, Don Ferguson, Mike Patterson, Gary West and student leader Chelsea Holmes, are to be congratulated for their tireless efforts. University of Oklahoma officials Leslie Baumert and Jeff Hickman put in many, many hours to make the tournament a success.

And NFL wishes to thank President David Boren, one of NFL's greatest alumni members, for his support.

Lincoln Financial Group – Proud Sponsor of NFL

For the fourth straight year, Lincoln Financial Group was proud to partner with the NFL as its national corporate sponsor. As part of its sponsorship commitment, Lincoln Financial Group helps fund the national tournament and provides $78,000 in college scholarships and prizes.

Lincoln representatives impressed at national tournament

It was a wonderful opportunity for Kelly Clevenger, Vice President, Lincoln Financial Group, to once again represent Lincoln at this year's National Tournament. "After three years in attendance, the poise, skill and quality of competition by everyone continues to amaze me. The enthusiasm and sportsmanship displayed is a tribute to all participants. The tournament is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate and showcase the academic and presentation skills of our students whose efforts are often over-shadowed by the attention given to high school athletes," exclaims Clevenger.

First annual video speech contest held

The national tournament culminated with a very exciting awards ceremony. Not only were the top six winners in each category, along with their coaches, honored and given trophies but also recognized were the first- and second-place winners of the first annual Lincoln Financial Group® Video Speech Contest. This contest, consisting of a five-minute video speech on "The Fourth R: Retirement Planning – it's never too early to start", gave NFL members an opportunity to learn about the advantages of early retirement planning and compete for an educational scholarship at the same time. The first- and second-place winners automatically qualified for the national tournament in expository speech.

Tiffany Ying from Fargo-Shanley High School, Fargo, ND was the first-place winner and the recipient of a $2,000 scholarship. The second-place winner, Michael Kozminski from Savannah High School, St. Joseph, MO received a $1,000 scholarship. Each winner's coach received a $500 honorarium. You can view excerpts of their winning speeches on LFG.com. Details of the 2002 Lincoln Financial Group® Video Speech Contest will be announced later this year.

Tribute to all tournament qualifiers

During the closing awards ceremony, Gloster Current, Vice President, Lincoln Financial Group, gave a tribute on behalf of Lincoln Financial Group to the thousands of national tournament qualifiers.

Following is an excerpt from his speech:

"General Colin Powell, Secretary of State, once said... 'In a brain based economy, your best assets are people... only by attracting the best people will you accomplish great ideas.' You students have made a wise choice in committing your time and energy to be better human assets. You've sharpened your ability to speak; to research; to organize your thoughts and to convey messages... both humorous and serious, in an effective manner. And in so doing, you bring pride and honor on your parents, your schools, your communities and yourselves. Just in being here, you are all certified as winners and champions in your own right."

Lincoln Financial Group is proud to continue our sponsorship with the National Forensic League and wishes the best of luck to all National Forensic League student members and coaches for a successful upcoming season. "To succeed today, you must be able to share your thoughts effectively with others," noted Jon Boscia, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Lincoln Financial Group. "We support programs like the NFL because they teach young people, like the National Forensic League members, the communication skills they'll carry with them their entire lives. And there is no smarter investment than the ones we make in today's youth."

NFL members star in new ads

The national tournament brought NFL members together from all around the country. This created an ideal opportunity for Lincoln Financial Group to arrange a photography session. Several students were asked to become "models for a day" and pose for new ads promoting the National Forensic League. These ads will be featured on the back cover of Rostrum later this year. Prints will also be sent to schools across the country to encourage more students to join the National Forensic League.

Watch for these new ads - you may see someone you know!

YOUR FAITH, YOUR SKILLS, YOUR DREAMS

Gloster B. Current, Jr.

Speech given by
GLOSTER CURRENT
 Vice President
 Marketing and Public Relations
Lincoln Financial Group
 at the NFL Oklahoma Tournament
 June 15, 2001

To the president of the NFL, Mr. William Tate; the executive secretary and national tournament director, Jim Copeland; to the executive council and staff of the National Forensic League; to the local host committee and the outstanding staff of the University of Oklahoma...and also to our fellow sponsors, I bring you greetings from our CEO, Jon Boscia and the employees of Lincoln Financial Group. Hasn't this been a great National tournament? Let's give our hosts and organizers a round of applause.

Now I'm not going to talk long because I know I'm the last thing between you and these large trophies. And even larger checks! Plus, I'm going to take some advice my grandfather gave me...he said "Gloster, there are three keys to a successful talk...you have a good opening, a good closing and keep them as close together as possible."

Let me first ask that we all give a tribute to the reason we are all here...to the thousands of national tournament qualifiers...the student speakers and debaters from around the country. General Colin Powell, now secretary of state says in his "Leadership Primer"... "In a brain based economy, your best assets are people... only by attracting the best people will you accomplish great deeds". You students have made a wise choice in committing your time and energy to be better human assets. You've sharpened your ability to speak; to research; to organize your thoughts... and to convey messages... both humorous and serious in an effective manner. And in so doing, you bring pride and honor on your parents, your schools, your communities and yourselves. Just in being here, you are all certified as winners and champions in your own right. Let's give our students a round of applause.

I believe the real unsung heroes of high school speech and debate are the coaches. Coaches serve as role models, teachers, sounding boards and judges...nurturing their students at tournaments large and small. They log hundreds of hours and thousands of miles, often sacrificing personal time for bus rides and fast food. And students...I know that sometimes you get tired of your coaches pushing you.... But they know that there are no shortcuts to anyplace worth going and they would rather have you fail trying than failing to try! Let's give our coaches a round of applause... in fact, how about all coaches standing up? And students, applause is nice, but a hug every now and then is nice too.

To my colleagues at Lincoln Financial Group, I thank you. You know, we're a large corporation... The 40th largest corporation in America by asset size and a Fortune 200 firm by revenue. We provide sophisticated estate planning expertise to individuals and business owners as well as money management, insurance and pension and retirement services to corporations, government entities, hospitals and schools. But I'll tell you... this sponsorship is not totally understood and appreciated everywhere in our corporation. So it takes a group of dedicated people within our company to make the case that high school forensics is a training ground that prepares this country's future leaders. I'd like to acknowledge our employer retirement markets... The unit that provides pension programs for schools and other non-profit entities. The head of that unit Bob Bond, and his vice-president who has supported the NFL over the years who is here with us tonight, Kelly Clevenger. Assisting Kelly and handling most of the day-to-day contact with the NFL are two very talented staff members, Charlotte Heaston and Vicki Spurling. And from our National Marketing staff, the liaison between Lincoln and the NFL, the 2nd Vice-President of Corporate Marketing, Susan Crabtree. Susan is assisted at this year's tournament by Ellen Ganz... an intern we've hired from the University of Pennsylvania. Ellen, we're happy to have you here.

In closing, if you'll indulge me for a moment of personal reflection. I'm the father of two daughters... and husband of one wife. Three weeks ago this past Monday, I sat in the audience when my eldest daughter, Angelyn, walked across the stage at Clark Atlanta University and received her Bachelor of Arts degree, magna cum laude. The commencement speaker was former congressman William Gray who is now president of the United Negro College Fund. Mr. Gray, who is also a Baptist minister, gave us all a laugh when he said... "We're pleased to acknowledge today those graduating summa cum laude; magna cum laude and cum laude... but if you're like me, your graduating and saying, "Thank you laude". That was a high moment.

Last week, I talked to my daughter and she told me that the high tech company she was working for as an intern and where she hoped to move up soon, had just announced a staff cut-back and her job was being eliminated July 1. True story. So I said to my daughter... "OK... and you're ready to deal with this challenge, right?" She said... "I am?" I said... "Sure, because you've got three things that no one can ever take away from you... Three things that you can draw upon to face life's challenges... your faith... your skills... and your dreams."

My friends, the future you face is more like the future my daughter is facing. I think its unlikely you'll have a 40 year career at the same company... but I think you'll move from industry to industry... from staff to line... from the private sector to the public sector... from national to international. Abraham Lincoln said it best in his annual message to Congress in 1862... He said, "The dogmas of the quiet past are inadequate to the stormy present". So the skills that you are learning in forensics will equip you for all of these opportunities and obstacles. And when you combine those skills with a faith... a belief in something greater than yourself... and your dreams... a hoped for future vision of where you want to be and what you want to do... I am confident that years from now when you meet your final coach, he'll look you in the eye and say, "Well done". Good luck and thank you. Lincoln Financial Group is proud to be your sponsor.

A special "thank you" to Glenda Ferguson, the Oklahoma Committee,
the University of Oklahoma staff and the many helpful volunteers.

Great hospitality!

The Best Debate Site on the Web has a New Look and New Content... Get in the Flow!

• New Forums:

Hsdebate.com now has full-featured forum software, with instant message integration, avatars, and an intuitive interface. If you don't see a forum for your state, request one.

• Private Forums:

We also offer secure, private discussion forums. It's an excellent way for coaches and debaters to communicate, especially if you want to include alums or former coaches that can't easily collaborate any other way. Hsdebate.com will create a private forum for any coach that requests one, and grant access only to the people you authorize.

• Evidence Exchange:

Free evidence trading is still offered on the site for the many users that would rather trade than buy evidence. The exchange is growing quickly and is the most efficient way to trade evidence. People "buy" and "sell" evidence using credits. It's 100% free of charge.

• Evidence Emporium:

For the first time, hsdebate.com is offering evidence for sale. Anyone can sell evidence through our site. We pay generous royalties and handle all of the promotion and fulfillment. For buyers, check out our growing catalog.

• Nuclear Research:

Our research page is the best place to research WMD. It combines a customized search engine with an extensive catalog of organized links about nuclear weapons.

• Archives:

The archives are still the centerpiece of hsdebate.com- tournament results, invitations, theory, and more stretching back over five years.

• Chat Room:

Our chat room is a great place to talk about debate. Our new software makes chatting on the web smoother and easier than most other sites.

Introducing the Thursday File...

A new, innovative service will debut through hsdebate.com this upcoming season. Phil Kerpen will write a new, high-quality politics disadvantage available every thursday. At a low cost of $10.00 per file, debaters will electronically receive an up-to-date, ready to run, complete argument. Each file will also feature affirmative responses to politics disads. An interactive forum will allow customers to request answers to specific politics arguments as part of the file. Discounted annual subscriptions are available.

These disadvantages will be superior to all other commercially available disadvantages. Every file will be written on the day of delivery (to ensure the most recent evidence available) by Phil Kerpen, an excellent researcher. Files will feature impact-specific uniqueness and internal links. The files will be designed so that a single file is runnable as a disad on its own, but files from previous weeks will still be useful and only minimally redundant. Any older cards necessary to make a file work will be included, but will not trade off with the regular 30-40 pages of new evidence.

"I've coached college debate for eight years and in that time I've worked closely with national champions and top speakers. Phil is the most innovative debate mind I have ever coached and I am sure I learned more from him during his stay at West Georgia than he learned from me. His ability to find the best evidence for any and every argument is as good as anyone who has ever played the game."

Michael Hester,
Director of Debate, two-time
defending CEDA National Champions, West Georgia

KUBISCH INTERNATIONAL BOWL

Ambassador Jack Kubisch and the board of DACOR (Diplomatic and Consular Officers, Retired) each contributed $500 to endow a special award to the contestant who wins the final round of Foreign Extemporaneous Speaking at Nationals.

The Kubisch International Bowl, a silver, engraved, footed bowl is presented to the student who, in the opinion of all final round judges, won the final round of foreign extemp.

Ambassador Kubisch's idea was that the final round was like no other: a large audience, the very best contestants, cross examination, nine judges; and its winner should be honored with a special award.

NFL thanks Ambassador Jack Kubisch for originating the idea and his generous support of this award. This year, Tom Pippin presented the Kubisch International Bowl to Ariel Schneller of Blacksburg (VA) HS.

THE CHAIRPERSON'S CHALICE

The winning student of the final round of United States Extemporaneous speaking, as reflected by counting every one of the nine final round judges, was presented the Chairperson's Chalice in honor of Dr. Linda McNish past Chairperson of the National Campaign for Public Service, a standing committee of the American Society for Public Administration (ASPA). Dr. McNish, a strong supporter of NFL, presented the "McNish Mug" to Lauren Siciliano, 2001 final round winner.

Winner Megan Bartle of Apple Valley HS, Minnesota

Many of you already know us ...

"Victory Briefs is truly the best evidence deal out there. Their analysis is top notch from novice to Nat's competitor. Case writing, raw ideas, these guys have got it all. This is one of the few briefs I bother with before my team gets it."

- Mr. Carcerano, Andress H.S. (TX)

"Victory Briefs are a great addition to our team's research and topic analysis. They map out the main issues of the resolution and provide a wide range of evidence for both sides, from many points of view. We especially appreciate that each brief is constructed from scratch--you don't get 'rehashed' cards from past resolutions or generic arguments, but cogent, thoughtful analysis."

- Carole Hamilton, Carey Academy (NC)

"From quoting Victor in final round competition in 1990 to buying them for our novices in summer camp, our debaters have always considered Victory Briefs the best Lincoln-Douglas material available for purchase. We missed them when they went out of print and rejoiced when they came back better than ever."

- Carol Biel, Chesterton High School (IN)

"Victory Briefs provide a depth of analysis unmatched by any other debate publication, yet are written in a simple and logical manner that can be useful to everyone from the beginning novice to the advanced varsity debater. The writers are experienced debaters themselves who know that the true essence of debate does not lie in an attempt to provide all the answers, but more importantly to ask questions which stimulate further investigation of the resolution."

- Matt Gregoline, 2000 Indiana State Champion

"My kids love the books and briefs...Thank you for all your help..."

- Anita Boyd, R.H. Watkins H.S. (MS)

"These books are not mere cheat sheets. They provide evidence in the context of its analysis. They are an excellent educational resource."

- Judith McMasters, Bishop Kelly H.S. (OK)

"The analysis from past and present champions are of the highest quality and truly give meaning to the evidence. Even before debating, my students have a good idea of what the arguments mean and how to run them. I'm very impressed, as is my team, with the quality ... Keep it up!"

- Mitch Gentry, West Bakersfield H.S. (CA)

"Our Lincoln-Douglas debaters are can hardly wait for each installment of the Victory Briefs. They use the authors' insights to help clarify their thinking about the resolutions. Our success is because we are using the Victory Briefs."

- Steve Gargo, Appleton West H.S. (WI)

For those of you who don't ...

A collaboration of ex-Champions at all levels of competition, we are dedicated to improving the quality of forensics throughout the country - for all individuals and schools, whether they have access to the resources of a local college team, a university library, or a summer institute. Visit us online at www.victorybriefs.com for more information.

policy

Don't know how to do policy debate? Trying to take your debate to the next level, but don't know how? Don't know how to coach policy debate? The 1998 NFL Champions answer these questions and more in Mastering Championship Debate, our How to Policy Debate Handbook.

We also offer topic-specific material for next year's topic. The Policy Case Areas books are published in June and August and offer evidence and analysis on some of the key areas of the topic. They are each over 400 pages long! The Kritik Handbook focuses on three kritiks that every advanced debater should be prepared to discuss.

lincoln-douglas

Victory Briefs began as a LD company; our handbooks are - without question - the best materials out there. We do not write cases for you; we do not provide pre-prepared "blocks." Instead, we offer a book of analysis, evidence, and insights that encourage you to think!

How can you deepen your understanding of values? The three volumes of the Value Handbooks have served as a foundational text for a decade of debaters all across the country. New this year, the Criteria Handbook - learn from the 1999 NFL Champion, the First, Second, and Third place debaters from the 2000 Tournament of Champions, and others. We are also offering, in the fall, a new Philosopher's Guide. Don't know how to debate? Read How to LD Debate.

extemp

Looking for a good extemp textbook for your students? We offer How to Extemp for beginners. For more advanced students wanting to take it to the championship level, we have Advanced Extemp, written by a coach and two-time collegiate nat'l champ. And this year (fall), we will be releasing our new Economics for Extempers.

What are extemp briefs? No, they are not dated materials. We have two textbooks that "brief" students on key areas in U.S. and Foreign current affairs. They provide background information and, more importantly, teach how to analyze & answer those issues.

2ND ANNUAL HARKER INVITATIONAL:

On Saturday, September 29 and Sunday, September 30, Harker High School will host the 2nd Annual Harker Invitational - a national debate tournament that offers Varsity and Junior Varsity Lincoln-Douglas and Varsity and Junior Varsity Policy divisions.

We will also offer a limited number of individual events, i.e., Expository, Impromptu, Oratory, Duo, and Dramatic Interpretation.

Harker High School is located in San Jose, California, just 10 minutes from nearby San Jose International Airport and 35 minutes from San Francisco International. We offer a very competitive tournament, free food, and a fine set of awards, viz., speaker awards for both LD and Policy debaters, elimination round trophies, and sweepstakes (1st, 2nd, and 3rd). We are fortunate to have a brand new hotel (Town Suites by Marriott) next door to us, within walking distance of our campus. The spacious new hotel has guaranteed us a $99 rate for two (which includes a full kitchen) and $139 rate for a two-bedroom suite for five.

Last year's Sweepstakes Winners:

1ST PLACE: Leland High School

2ND PLACE: Saratoga High School

Last year's Varsity Debate Winners:

The Head Royce School (Tribble and Schuler)
defeated St. Francis (Bitondo and Jurka)

To request a formal, written invitation, please contact
Matthew Brandstetter, Ed.D., Director of Harker Speech and Debate, (408)345-9235, or e-mail matthewb@harker.org.

Once again, we look forward to seeing you on the West Coast this fall - we will do everything we can to accommodate you and your students.

DO YOU WANT THE CURRENT L/D TOPIC?

You want the L/D topic and NFL wants you to have it, but --

The Problem

NFL is unable to handle the large number of telephone callers requesting the L/D topic every two months.

One call from each of NFL's 2600 plus schools would be difficult, without the additional calls from

-  Several students from the same school on the same day.
-  Teachers and students from Non-NFL schools.
-  Handbook publishers who do not advertise in the Rostrum.
-  People who have received their Rostrum but would rather call than read.
-  Collect, "emergency" calls demanding the topic!

Because the national office is small, hard working and understaffed, we can't handle the flood of calls at our busiest times. Yet everyone wants the topic on the date of release, so--

The Solution

The L/D topic will always appear on the banner page of the Rostrum, the official voice of NFL.

The L/D topic will always be available on the NFL answering machine. Call (920) 748-LD4U (748-5348). Call anytime 24 hours a day for the recorded topic.

The L/D topic will always be available on the NFL Website at Debate Central:

<http://debate.uvm.edu/nfl.html>

or

on the NFL Topic Website:
sites.netscape.net/topicpagenfl/homepage

Remember

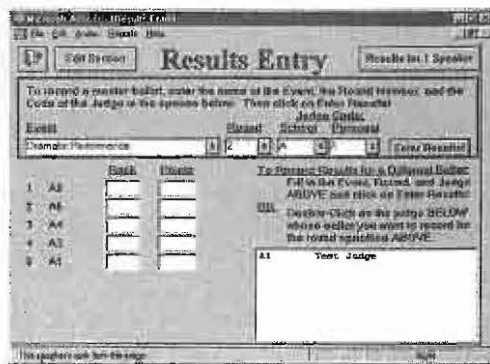

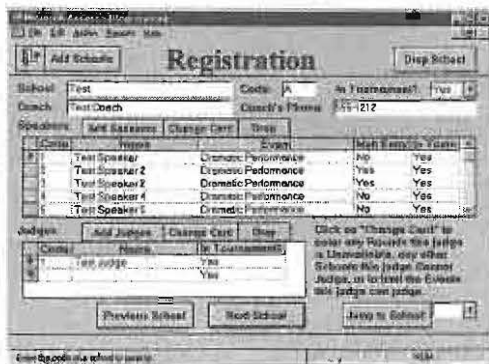

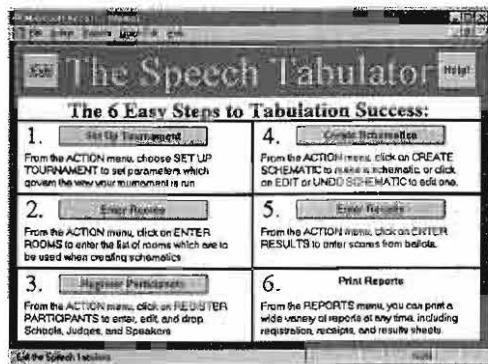

You can always get the topic by answering machine, computer modem, the Rostrum or the Web. So good debating -- and thanks for your understanding.

If a man with just one year of schooling could lead a nation, imagine what you could do with a little help.

Allison, Roo and Kiki — Northeast Indiana NFL District

Abraham Lincoln had almost no formal schooling. But he loved learning, and he understood the power of words — to stir men's souls, to influence thought, even to change the world around him. That's why, at Lincoln Financial Group, we're proud to sponsor the National Forensic League, A&E's BIOGRAPHY® Project for Schools, and other educational programs for young people. If you think you're ready for the NFL, give them a call at 920-748-6206. After all, four score and seven years from now, there's no telling what the history books will be saying about you.
